

Japan-China Energy Conservation and Environment Forum

January 17, 2022

Izuru KOBAYASHI

Agency for Natural Resources and Energy, METI

Japan-China Energy Conservation and Environment Forum

- Japan-China Energy Conservation and Environment forum has been held since 2006. The 15th was held last December.
- The forum is a platform for cooperation between China and Japan in the field of energy conservation and environment.
- The forum consists of plenary sessions, introduction of MOUs between Japanese and Chinese companies, and industrial/specific issue sessions.

	Venue	The number of attendee
1 st	Japan	850
2 nd	China	1,000
3 rd	Japan	1,100
4 th	China	1,000
5 th	Japan	1,100
6 th	China	1,000
7 th	Japan	1,000
8 th	China	500
9 th	Japan	750

Vice Premier Mr. Zeng Peiyan attended the 2nd meeting.

Vice Premier (the incumbent Premier) Mr. Li Keqiang attended the 4th meeting.

	Venue	The number of attendee
10 th	China	800
11 th	Japan	860
12 th	China	800
13 th	Japan	800
14 th	online	400
15 th	online	700

Before COVID-19, site visits were also conducted.

The 15th Forum ①

The 15th Japan-China Energy Conservation and Environment Forum was held on December 26, 2021. The event was attended by some 700 stakeholders from both the public and private sectors, including ministers of both Japan and China.

Main attendees

- Mr. Hagiuda, Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry
- Mr. Yamaguchi, Minister of the Environment
- Mr. Muneoka, Chairman of the Japan-China Economic Association

- Mr. He Lifeng, Chairman of the NDRC
- H.E. Mr. Ren Hongbin, Vice Minister of Commerce
- H.E. Mr. Kong, Ambassador of the People's Republic of China in Japan

The 15th Forum ②

Introduction of MOUs

- Memorandums for establishment of 11 new cooperation projects were exchanged between Japanese and Chinese companies/organizations.
- With these exchanges, the number of such projects has come to 413 since 2006.

Industrial/Specific issue sessions

- "improvement of energy efficiency (energy conservation),"
- "introduction of electrified and smarter vehicles,"
- "hydrogen and clean electricity,"
- "Japan-China long-term trading (water environment management and sludge disposal),"

