

2019 CJK Cooperatino Dialogue Speakers' Bio

Former Prime Minister FUKUDA Yasuo

Prime Minister of Japan 2007-2008

Born 1936. Graduated from Waseda University (Department of Economics) 1959; Petroleum refining and marketing company 1959-76; Prime Minister's Chief Secretary 1977-78. Member, House of Representatives 1990-2012; Parliamentary Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs 1995-96; Director, Foreign Affairs Division, Policy Research Council, LDP 1996-97. Minister of State, Chief Cabinet Secretary 2000-04; Director General of Okinawa Development Agency 2000; Minister of State for Gender Equality 2001-04. Prime Minister of Japan 2007-2008.

Chairman of Asian Forum of Parliamentarians on Population and Development (AFPPD) 2005-2012; Chairman of Asian Population and Development; Chairman of Boao Forum for Asia 2010-2018 ; among others.

SASAKI Nobuhiko

Chairman and CEO, Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO)

Nobuhiko Sasaki has been serving as Chairman and CEO of the Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO) since April 2019. Prior to this, he held multiple positions at Fujitsu Limited, including Corporate Executive Vice Chairman, SEVP (2018-2019); Corporate Executive Officer, SEVP, CSO (2017) and Corporate Executive Officer, EVP (2016), after working as Advisor of Tokio Marine & Nichido Fire Insurance Co., Ltd (2013-2015).

Nobuhiko had a distinguished career in the Japanese Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI, formerly MITI) which began in 1979 and where he eventually served as Vice Minister for International Affairs (2012-2013). Other positions he served in the Ministry include Director General of the Trade Policy Bureau (2010-2012) and Executive Director of JETRO Beijing (2008-2010). He served as First Secretary and Counselor of the Permanent Delegation of Japan to the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development OECD (1993-1996). Nobuhiko holds a master's degree from the University of California, Berkeley and a bachelor's degree in Law from the University of Tokyo.

Mr. Sasaki was born in 1955 in Akita Prefecture, Japan.

NISHIKAWA Kazumi

Director, Healthcare Industries Division, Commerce and Service Industry Policy Group
Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI) of Japan

Director, Healthcare Industries Division, METI (Ministry of Economy Trade and Industry) of Japan. Member of the Global Future Council for Human Enhancement and Longevity, World Economic Forum. Prior to current appointment, held various positions in METI over a period of 23 years, including Director for Trade Strategy to cover trade strategy and global growth strategy of Japan, Executive Director of JETRO Singapore/Special Adviser to the Minister's Secretariat of METI to cover Asian economic integration, Director for Policy Planning in the Economic and Industrial Policy Bureau to coordinate the Growth Strategy of “Abenomics” Policy, Principle Deputy Director of Minister’s Secretariat, World Trade Organization negotiator, and Deputy Director for SME Finance. Has also worked in the Defence Ministry and Cabinet Office. Holds a law degree from the University of Tokyo, an LLM from Northwestern University School of Law, and an LLM in International Studies from Georgetown University Law Center. Attorney at Law in New York State, USA.

KUSAKA Kazumasa

Chairman and CEO, Japan Economic Foundation (JEF)

Mr. Kazumasa Kusaka has been Chairman and CEO of the Japan Economic Foundation (JEF) since April 1, 2013 and is also a Professor at University of Tokyo Graduate School of Public Policy. He previously served for 36 years in Japan's Ministry of International Trade and Industry (MITI), rising to become vice-minister for international affairs in the reorganized Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI) in 2004. During his long career in public service, Kusaka was seconded to the International Energy Agency (IEA)/OECD and was Japan's senior official for Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC). He played a central role in Asia's economic integration, promoting FTAs in the region as well as serving as a senior official negotiating the Doha development agenda of the WTO. He was head of Japan's Energy Agency and held director-general positions in technology and environmental policy in addition to trade and investment-related areas within METI. He was also instrumental in finalizing the Kyoto Protocol, and developing Japan's energy and environment policies. Among many other posts Kusaka has held are Special Adviser to the Prime Minister on Global Warming, senior vice president of Mitsubishi Electric, executive adviser to Dentsu Inc., and president of the Japan Cooperation Center for the Middle East.

URATA Shujiro

Professor of Economics, Graduate School Asia-Pacific Studies, Waseda University

Shujiro Urata is Professor of Economics at Graduate School Asia-Pacific Studies, Waseda University. He is also Specially Appointed Fellow at the Japanese Centre for Economic Research (JCER), Faculty Fellow at the Research Institute of Economy, Trade & Industry (RIETI), Senior Research Adviser for the Executive Director of the Economic Research Institute for ASEAN and East Asia (ERIA) in Jakarta, and Visiting Fellow at the Asian Development Bank Institute. Professor Urata received his B.A. in Economics from Keio University in 1973 and his M.A. and Ph.D. in Economics at Stanford University in 1976 and 1978. He is a former Research Associate at the Brookings Institution, an Economist at the World Bank. He specializes in International Economics and Economics of Development. He has held a number of research and advisory positions including senior advisor to the Government of Indonesia, consultant to the World Bank, OECD, the Asian Development Bank and the Government of Japan. He published and edited a number of books on international economic issues and is an author and co-author of numerous articles in professional journals. His recent book publications in English include Emerging Global Trade Governance, co-editor, Routledge, 2018, East Asian Integration, co-editor, Routledge, 2019 and others.

FUKAGAWA Yukiko

Professor, School of Political Science and Economics, Waseda University

Yukiko Fukagawa is currently a Professor, School of Political Science and Economics, Waseda University and a Visiting Fellow, Yonsei University in Korea. After undergraduate program at Waseda, she studied at Yale University for MA in International Development Economics, and finished Ph.D program at Waseda Graduate School of Business Studies. Her major interest lies in economic development in East Asia, especially Korea. She worked for Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO) and Long-Term Credit Bank Research Institute (LTCBR) before joining the faculty member of Aoyama Gakuin University and the University of Tokyo before coming back to Waseda. She engaged in many consultation and advisory activities for the government, such as the Committee for Foreign Exchange in the Ministry of Finance, the Committee for Industrial Structure in the Ministry of Economy and Industry etc... She served as the Chairman of Economic Section in “Japan-Korea Joint Study for the New Era” project opened in 2013. Her recent publication includes Japan’s Future International Cooperation (2015), Nihon Hyoronsha, Northeast Asia and Japan-Korea Relations in Post Financial Crisis (2013), co-ed with Yul Sohn, Institute of International Studies, Waseda University.

KATO Sota

Executive Director and Research Director, Tokyo Foundation for Policy Research

Sota Kato is an executive director and research director at the Tokyo Foundation for Policy Research. After earning a law degree (LLM) from the University of Tokyo in 1991, he joined the Japanese Ministry of International Trade and Industry, becoming assistant director in the aircraft and defence industries division, deputy director in the international economic division and senior research fellow at the Research Institute of Economy, Trade and Industry. He has been a professor at the International University of Japan since 2006. He received the Nikkei Prize for Economics Books in 2001, the Jiro Osaragi Rondan Prize (Asahi Shimbun) in 2002 and the Best Paper Award at the Society for the Advancement of Socio-Economics in 2012. He received an MBA (with honours) from Harvard Business School and a PhD in political science from the University of Michigan.

ABE “Ted” Tsuyoshi

Senior Vice President, Head of Marketing Headquarters, Yokogawa Electric Corporation

Dr. Tsuyoshi Abe joined Yokogawa Electric Corporation in March 2016 as Vice President, Head of Marketing Headquarters and rose to become Senior Vice President in April 2018, and is responsible for section in wide area not only traditional marketing such as branding, PR, Ads, Market Intelligent, Market Automation, but also Research & Development (R&D), next mid/long term business plan, new business development, M&A/Alliance management, strategic IP & Standard management and Industrial Design.

He previously served for 26 years at Intel Corporation in Japan. In Intel, he started his career as an engineer in 1985, after serving as General Manager in several divisions, he served Executive Vice President, Head of Technology Development and Manufacturing Technology Department for five years from 2011.

MATSUSHITA Kazuo

Professor Emeritus, Kyoto University

Senior Fellow, Institute for Global Environmental Strategies (IGES)

Lead Co-chair, Task Force 3 on Climate and Environment of T20 Japan 2019

Examiner, Environmental and Social Guidelines, Japan International Cooperation (JICA)

Prof. Matsushita served as Professor of Global Environmental Policy at the Graduate School of Global Environmental Studies of the Kyoto University, from November 2001 to March 2013. He graduated from the Tokyo University and obtained MA in political economy from the Johns Hopkins University. He joined the Environment Agency in 1972 and served as the Director of the Air Pollution Control Division and the Global Environment Policy and Cooperation Division. He also worked at the OECD, UNCED and IGES. His research focuses on green economy and environmental policy integration for sustainable society. His publication includes “A Journey to Global Environmental Studies”, “An Introduction to Environmental Policy”, “Environmental Governance”, “Introduction to Environmental Politics”, “Environment in the 21st Century and New Development Patterns” (in English). He is also Academic Adviser of the Global Environment Forum (GEF) of Japan as well as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Environmental Innovation and Communication Organization.

HARAOK Naoyuki

Executive Managing Director, Japan Economic Foundation (JEF)

Mr. Naoyuki Haraoka has been Executive Managing Director of the Japan Economic Foundation (JEF) since 2007. After graduating the University of Tokyo in 1978 (Bachelor of Economics), he joined MITI (Ministry of International Trade and Industry) of Japanese government.

Having been posted in the industrial policy section and the international trade policy section for a few years, he was enrolled in a two year MPA (Master of Public Administration) programme at Woodrow Wilson School of Princeton University in the US on a Japanese government sponsorship. After having acquired MPA at Princeton, he rejoined MITI in 1984 as an economist. Since then he had been posted as Deputy Director and Director of a number of MITI divisions including Research Division of International Trade Policy Bureau. He was also posted in Paris twice, firstly, Principal Economist of Trade Bureau of OECD (Organization of Economic Cooperation and Development) from 1988 to 92 and secondly Counselor to Japanese Delegation of OECD from 1996 to 99. He worked as Head of JETRO San Francisco from 2003 until 2006. He was Director-General of METI Training Institute from 2006 until July, 2007 when he left METI permanently.

YOSHINO Naoyuki

Dean and CEO, Asian Development Bank Institute (ADBI)
Professor Emeritus, Keio University

Naoyuki Yoshino is Dean and CEO of the Asian Development Bank Institute (ADB Institute); Professor Emeritus of Keio University, in Tokyo, Japan; and Senior Adviser at the Japan Financial Services Agency's (FSA) Financial Research Center (FSA Institute). He obtained his PhD from Johns Hopkins University, where his thesis supervisor was Sir Alan Walters (who was Margaret Thatcher's Economic Adviser). He was a visiting scholar at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (United States) and has been a visiting professor at various universities including the University of New South Wales (Australia), Fondation Nationale des Sciences Politiques (France), University of Gothenburg (Sweden) and Martin Luther University of Halle-Wittenberg (Germany). He was an Assistant Professor at the State University of New York at Buffalo and an Economics Professor at Keio University from 1991 to 2014. He was appointed board of the Financial Planning Standards Board in 2007, and also served as chairperson of the Japanese Ministry of Finance's council on Foreign Exchange and its Fiscal System Council (Fiscal Investment and Loan Program Section). He was also a board member of the Deposit Insurance Corporation of Japan, chairperson of the Meeting of Japanese Government Bond Investors (Ministry of Finance), and was President of the Financial System Council of the Government of Japan. He was conferred honorary doctorates by the University of Gothenburg (Sweden) in 2004 and by Martin Luther University of Halle-Wittenberg (Germany) in 2013; he also received the Fukuzawa Award from Keio University for his contribution to academic research in 2013. He is the President of Financial Education Council organized by the Central Bank of Japan, Financial Services Agency (FSA), Ministry of Education, Cabinet Ministry and private financial institutions.

OGURO Kazumasa

Professor, Faculty of Economics, Hosei University

Kazumasa Oguro graduated from the Faculty of Science of Kyoto University and holds a PhD in economics from Hitotsubashi University. In 1997, he joined the Ministry of Finance and worked as Assistant to the Legal Examination Officer at the Administration and Legal Division of the Minister's Secretariat, Assistant Director at the Enforcement Division of the Customs and Tariff Bureau, and Research Fellow at the Policy Research Institute of the same ministry. This was followed by a position as associate professor at the Institute of Economic Research at Hitotsubashi University, after which, he joined Hosei University in April 2015, and he has been there ever since. He is also active as a Senior Visiting Researcher at the Ministry of Finance's Policy Research Institute, a Consulting Fellow at the Research Institute of Economy, Trade and Industry, and involved in the promotion of the Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare's "Japan Vision: Healthcare 2035." Professor Oguro is a member of the Japanese Cabinet Office's Committee for Regulatory Sandbox in Japan. Furthermore, he is Director at the Kajima Institute of International Peace and the Institute for New Era Strategy, and a Senior Research Fellow at the Canon Institute for Global Studies. His expertise is in Public Economics.

GONG Ro-myung

Chairman, East Asia Foundation

Former Korean Foreign Minister and the chairman of the East Asia Foundation, Ro-Myung Gong was a chair professor in the Division of International Studies of Dongseo University in Busan, Korea, since 2007. He is also the advisor of the Korea-Japan Forum since after serving as Chairman from 2003 to 2012. He was born on February 25, 1932. He is a graduate of the Law College, Seoul National University and studied at the London School of Economics and Political Science. He entered the Republic of Korea's Ministry of Foreign Affairs in 1958 and served at various overseas diplomatic missions of Korea, including in Washington DC, Tokyo, Canberra and Cairo. He was the Republic of Korea's Ambassador to Brazil from 1983 to 1986, Consul-General in New York (1986-89), Ambassador to the then-Soviet Union (1990-92), Director of the Institute of Foreign Affairs and Security (IFANS) (1992-93), Ambassador to Japan (1993-94), and became Minister of Foreign Affairs from December 1994 to November 1996. After retiring from government, he served as a member of the Presidential Advisory Council on Unification in 1997. In 1992, he was also the representative of the 6th, 7th, and 8th round of high-level inter-Korean talks and chairman of South Korea for the South-North Joint Nuclear Control Commission. He was chairman of the 2010 PyeongChang Olympic Winter Games Bid Committee (1992-93), chair professor of Dongguk University, Seoul (1997-2004) and of Hallym University in Chuncheon (2004-07), and chairman of the Sejong Foundation/Sejong Institute (2008-11).

AHN Choong-yong

Distinguished Professor, Graduate School of International Studies, Chung-Ang University

Dr. Ahn is currently Distinguished Professor, Graduate School of International Studies, Chung-Ang University. He is also currently co-Chairmen of the Annual Korea-India Strategic Dialogue. Previously, he was the Chairman, Korea Commission for Corporate Partnership (KCCP) and responsible for inducing voluntary collaborations between Korea's big businesses and SMEs, and also Chairman of the Board, Korea Electric Power Corporation. Before taking his current post, he served as Foreign Investment Ombudsman (2006-2014) who is the troubleshooter responsible for resolving grievances raised by foreign investors at the Korea Trade and Investment Promotion Agency in Korea. He is former Chairman of the Presidential Regulatory Reform Committee (2010-2012). While on sabbatical from Chung-Ang University, he also served several posts such as the President of the Korea Institute for International Economic Policy (2002-2005); Chair of the APEC Economic Committee; Chair of Board, Choheung Bank; consultant to the World Bank; UNIDO Chief Technical Advisor to the Economic Planning Unit of Malaysia to design Malaysia's industrial master plan; and served as President of several academic societies in Korea including Korea International Economics Association, Korea Econometric Society, Korean Association of Trade and Industry Studies, and Korea Development Economic Association, etc.

Dr. Ahn's honors include the Economist of the Year Award from the Maeil Business Daily Newspaper in Korea, the Okita Policy Research Award by the National Institute for Research Advancement in Japan for his publication on "Modern East Asian Economy," and Free Economy Publication Award by the Federation of Korean Industries. Since receiving his Ph.D. from Ohio State University, Dr. Ahn has published many articles in international journals including Review of Economics and Statistics, European Economic Review, Japanese Economic Review, Journal of Asian Economics and Monograph papers in North-Holland, Cambridge University Press, Springer, and Edward Elgar, etc.

KIM Kyungsoo

Emeritus Professor of Economics, Sungkyunkwan University

Mr. Kyungsoo Kim is Professor of Economics Emeritus at Sungkyunkwan University. He taught at SKKU (1988.9-2019.2) and Tulane University (1984.5-1988.8). He also served as a deputy governor of the Bank of Korea (2007.3-2011.2). He received a Ph.D. from the University of Pennsylvania (1984.5) and a bachelor's degree at Seoul National University (1978.2). As an open macroeconomist he has contributed numerous papers in professional journals and books, most recently coauthored "International Capital Mobility and Structural Transformation," in B.E. Journal of Macroeconomics (2018.2). He will soon publish a book (in Korean), "Big Shift." Kim has served as president of the 48th Korea Economic Association (2018.3-2019.2) and president of the 22nd Korea Monetary and Finance Association (2012.7-2013.6).

KIM Sang-Hyup

Visiting Professor, Graduate School of Green Growth, College of Business, KAIST

Sang-Hyup Kim is a visiting professor at Graduate School of Green Growth, College of Business, KAIST and chairman of Coalition for Our Common Future. He is also the director of the Center for Sustainable Development, KAIST. Prior to joining the KAIST (2013), Mr. Kim has worked at the Office of the President of the Republic of Korea from 2008 as the Secretary for National Future and Vision, where he contributed in setting the historic “Low Carbon Green Growth” vision for Korea. In 2011, he became the Senior Secretary to the President for Green Growth, coordinating the planning, developing and implementing of Korea’s Green Growth strategy. Through collaboration with the Presidential Committee on Green Growth and relevant ministries, his agenda ranges from national implementation of Green Growth policies to international climate change negotiations and promoting global cooperation for making green growth a truly global asset. Moreover, he served as a member of the Global Agenda Council of World Economic Forum and now he also serves as a co-chairman of Jeju Green Big Bang Committee.

Kim was formerly a Washington correspondent for Maeil Business Newspaper and a co-founding member of the World Knowledge Forum and Vision Korea Project. He has also worked at Seoul Broadcasting System (SBS), during which he set up the future and vision projects team in 2004, in addition to found and serving in the capacity of the Executive Director of the Seoul Digital Forum.

Kim has a B.A and M.A in International Relations from Seoul National University. He has been recipient of numerous awards during his career, including: Broadcaster of the Year; Korean Broadcasters Association (2007); Hongjo Order of Service Merit (2010); Hwangjo Order of Service Merit (2013).

KIM Jin Young

Director for Asia, Global Green Growth Institute (GGGI)

Jin Young is Director for Asia at Global Green Growth Institute, leading a portfolio of 13 programs and over 120 in-country staff, while providing leadership and oversight over program formulation and implementation to deliver results on over 50 projects, working with more than 30 Ministries and agencies, in Cambodia, China, India, Indonesia, Lao PDR, Mongolia, Myanmar, Nepal, Philippines, Thailand, Vietnam, Sri Lanka and Uzbekistan.

She also served as UAE Country Representative of GGGI, setting up GGGI's UAE Country Program from its inception; over the years she has provided policy advisory to the government resulting in the successful establishment of the landmark national policies such as the UAE Green Agenda 2015-2030 and the National Climate Change Plan.

Before joining GGGI, she worked for the Presidential Committee on Green Growth of Korea and Korean National Commission on Sustainable Development primarily working on international dimension of Korea's Green Growth and Sustainable Development Strategy and related policy directions.

She graduated from Seoul National University (B.A in Economics and Int'l Relations) and holds dual MAs from Seoul National Univ (Int'l Relations) and University of Washington (Political Science and Political Methodologies).

KIM Jung-Sik

Professor Emeritus, School of Economics, Yonsei University

Jung-Sik Kim is Professor Emeritus at School of Economics, Yonsei University. He was a Visiting Scholar of Department of Economics, Harvard University and Institute for International Studies at University of Cambridge. He worked as the Dean of the College of Business and Economics and Dean of the Graduate School of Economics, Yonsei University.

He served as Adviser of Bank of Korea, and held the post of Chairman of Committee for Financial Development in Financial Services Commission (FSC) and Chairman of Policy Evaluation Committee of Ministry of Strategy and Finance. Kim was the President of Korean Economic Association (KEA) and Korea International Economic Association (KIEA).

Kim is the President of Asia Finance Society and has published widely on open macroeconomics, international finance and East Asian financial cooperation. His most recent paper is “Korean Currency Crisis and Capital Flow Reversal: A Supply Side Approach of Currency Crisis”.

YI Insill

Professor, Graduate School of Economics, Sogang University President of Korean Economic Association

Insill Yi is currently a Professor of Graduate School of Economics and President of Korean Economic Association. She served for Korean government as the 12th Commissioner of Statistics Korea. She also served for National Assembly Budget Office as a Chief of Economic Analysis Division. She also worked as a senior research fellow and director of the Center for Finance and Tax, for Korea Economic Research Institute. She worked as a senior economist and team leader of financial analysis team, for Hana Bank Research Institute.

She is publishing books, articles and expressing various opinions in academic journals and newspapers as a columnist and Contributing Editor of Korea Economic Newspaper and Contributing Editor of Donga Daily Newspaper.

She had been and is currently active in participating the governmental committees (such as Advisory Committee Member of National Assemble Budget Office, Member of Policy Advisor to Minister of Justice, and Advisory Committee Member of Financial Supervisory Service, Advisory Member of Ministry of Strategy and Finance). She served for the president and is currently honorary president of the Korean Women Economic Association and the President of the Association of Korean Economic Studies. She was a former Director of Nam Duck-Woo Economic Research Institute and former Vice-President for Public Affairs at Sogang University.

She has a bachelor's degree in economics and geology from Yonsei University and a doctoral degree from the University of Minnesota USA.

CHI Fulin

President, China Institute for Reform and Development (CIRD)

Professor Chi Fulin is a research fellow and supervisor of Ph. D. students at CIRD, and a member of the 11th and 12th National Committee of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference. Concurrently, he is also a vice chairman of China Society of Economic Reform, vice chairman of China Society of Administrative Reform. He is also professor at National Academy of Governance, Peking University, Northeast University. He is a member of the national 13th Five-year Plan experts committee and vice chairman of the market regulation experts committee of the State Administration for Market Regulation. He plays an advisory role for the government in Guangdong, Shangdong and Hainan. He was awarded renowned Sun Yefang Prize for Economics and China Development Research Award and many others. He was selected as one of the "100 Economists that have Influenced China's Economic Construction in the Last 60 Years". He and his work were selected in Overview on the academic achievements of famous Chinese social scientists in the 20th Century (Economics Volume).

ZHANG Yunling

Professor and Academician, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences (CASS)

Zhang Yunling, Professor and Academician of Chinese Academy of Social Sciences (CASS). He is a member of National Committee of CPPCC. He is now President of Chinese Association for Asia-Pacific Studies, Vice President of China Committee of PECC, Director of Research Center for Regional Security. He was Director of Institute of Asia-Pacific Studies, CASS (1993.11-2007.8), Director of Institute of Japanese Studies, CASS (co-current, 1995-2001). He served as a member of EAVG, China-ASEAN Cooperation Official Expert Group, Task Force of ASEM and Chairman of Joint Expert Group for Feasibility Study on EAFTA, Member of Joint Expert Group for Feasibility on CEPEA.

JIANG Ruiping

Former Vice President, China Foreign Affairs University (CFAU)

Professor of economics and former vice president of China Foreign Affairs University. He is member of the Advisory Committee for Trade of China Ministry of Commerce and member of Advisory Group of East Asian Cooperation of China Ministry of Foreign Affairs. He also serves as Vice Chairman of National Association for Japanese Economic Studies and vice president of East Asian Forum for Peace and Development. He has been granted special government allowance and other numerous honorable titles. His research interests cover world economy, Japanese economy and China-Japan economic relations, East Asian economic cooperation and international political economy. He has published many books and articles, most of which have wide influence within the academia and the policy sector.

Before joining his present organization, he worked at Hebei University as a professor of economics and served as deputy director of Institute of Japan studies.

YIN Zhongyi

Advisor to CIRD president, Fomer Executive President , China Institute for Reform and Development (CIRD)

Professor Yin Zhongyi is a research fellow and supervisor of PhD candidates. He mainly engages in the research areas of: transformation of development model and industrial restructuring, rural development and rural governance, welfare system and institutional arrangement for equalization of basic public resources, and low carbon economic development and development policy innovation, institutional arrangement and building of market mechanism. He has involved in international cooperation with organizations such as UNDP, GIZ and NIBR. He has published more than 30 academic articles and 12 books that he is either the author or the translator. Professor Yin is one of the designers of the topics of Boao Forum for Asia for four years. He is also one of the authors of FBA annual summary, FBA Board of Directors Meeting report and FBA General Members Meeting report for three years.

YANG Rui

Vice President, China Institute for Reform and Development (CIRD)

Previously held positions in CIRD as PA of the president, director of Beijing office and executive president of Beijing Branch, received her Master degree of Public Administration from Beijing Normal University, research fellow of China Enterprise Reform and Development Society. She has been participated in several researches and in charge of CIRD's workshops in Beijing. Her current research is mainly in the history of reform and opening up.

