

Dr. Choong-Yong Ahn
Chairman, Korea Commission for Corporate Partnership
(KCCP)

Choong-Yong Ahn is Chairman of the Korea Commission for Corporate Partnership (KCCP), responsible for nurturing voluntary collaborations and synergy between Korea's big businesses and small and medium enterprises. Prior to his current post, he served as Foreign Investment Ombudsman (2006-2014), the troubleshooter responsible for resolving grievances raised by foreign investors at the Korea Trade and Investment Promotion Agency in Korea. From 2010 to 2012, he was Chairman of the Presidential Regulatory Reform Committee. He also holds Distinguished Professorship at the Graduate School of International Studies of Chung-Ang University. While on sabbatical from Chung-Ang University, he also served several posts such as President of the Korea Institute for International Economic Policy (2002- 2005); Chair of the APEC Economic Committee; Chair of Board, Choheung Bank; consultant to the World Bank; UNIDO Chief Technical Advisor to the Economic Planning Unit of Malaysia to design Malaysia's industrial master plan; and as President of several academic societies in Korea including the Korea International Economics Association, Korean Association of Trade and Industry Studies, and Korea Econometric Society.

Dr. Ahn's honors include the Economist of the Year Award from the Maeil Business Daily Newspaper in Korea, the Okita Policy Research Award by the National Institute for Research Advancement in Japan for his publication on "Modern East Asian Economy", and Free Economy Publication Award by the Federation of Korean Industries. Since receiving his Ph.D. from Ohio State University, Dr. Ahn has published many articles in international journals including the Review of Economics and Statistics, European Economic Review, Japanese Economic Review, and Journal of Asian Economics, as well as monograph papers in North-Holland, Cambridge University Press, Springer, and Edward Elgar, to name a few.

Dr. Jose Ramon Albert
Senior Research Fellow, Philippine Institute for
Development Studies (PIDS)

Jose Ramon Albert is Senior Research Fellow at the Philippine Institute for Development Studies. He was Secretary-General of the now defunct National Statistical Coordination Board. Dr. Albert is a professional statistician who has written or co-authored various monographs, papers, journal articles, and popular writings on topics spanning poverty analysis, education statistics, ICT statistics and big data, climate change, and innovation. He is also a member of various bodies and expert groups on statistical matters, including the UN Global Pulse Privacy Advisory Group, and the Philippine Commission on Higher Education (CHED) Technical Committee on Statistics.

For over 15 years, Dr. Albert has worked in two dozen countries supported by various development agencies. He has taught at several higher educational institutions, and has directed various statistical capacity- building activities. He is the immediate past President of the Philippine Statistical Association, Inc. He earned a PhD in Statistics (1993) and a Master of Science in Statistics (1989) from the State University of New York at Stony Brook. He was a DOST-SEI Scholar and graduated with a degree in Applied Mathematics (summa cum laude and awardee for Excellence in Mathematics) from the De La Salle University (1988).

Dr. Thomas Aquino
Chairman, Board of Directors, NOW Corporation

Thomas Aquino has professional expertise in business strategy, trade policy, investments and technology promotions, industrial policy, and international negotiations.

He is Senior Fellow at the Center for Research and Communication, University of Asia and the Pacific (UA&P).

He is Chairman of NOW Corporation, Independent Director of Alsons Consolidated Resources Inc, and A Brown Company Inc. (both publicly-listed companies in the Philippine Stock Exchange), and Chairman of REID Foundation Inc.

Formerly Senior Undersecretary of the Philippine Department of Trade and Industry, he promoted exports abroad and led the country's trade negotiations in the World Trade Organization and ASEAN Economic Community and its participation in the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation. He was overall lead negotiator for the Japan-Philippines Economic Partnership Agreement. He was conferred the Presidential Service Award (Lingkod Bayan) for his extraordinary contribution of national impact on public interest, security, and patrimony and was recipient of the Gawad Mabini Award with the rank of Grand Cross (Dakilang Kamaong) for distinguished service to the country by the President of the Republic of the Philippines.

He obtained his PhD in Management from the IESE Business School, University of Navarre, MS in Industrial Economics from UA&P, and AB in Economics from the School of Economics, University of the Philippines.

Dr. Nonarit Bisonyabut
Research Fellow, Thailand Development Research
Institute (TDRI)

Nonarit Bisonyabut was born in 1980 in Bangkok, Thailand. He received a Bachelor of Economics and a Master of Economics from Chulalongkorn University and a PhD in Economics from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 2010. From 2011 to 2014, he served as a member of the senate's subcommittee and an advisor of the committee on monetary, finance, banking, and financial institutions. Currently, he is a member of the National Anti-Corruption Commission's subcommittee on indicators for the assessment of corruption risk. His research spans many topics in applied mathematics, econometrics, and development economics in the areas of poverty, inequality, and economic growth. His primary interest is on topics that involve Thailand's social and economic development.

Dr. Roehlano Briones
Senior Research Fellow, Philippine Institute for
Development Studies (PIDS)

Roehlano Briones is Senior Research Fellow at PIDS, where he conducts policy research for the Philippine government, with specialization in agricultural policy. He has authored numerous published research papers and co-edited four books, on the economics of agriculture and natural resources, rural development, food security, international trade, and the macro economy. He is a Board Member of the consultancy group Brain Trust Inc., past Board Member of the Philippine Economic Society, as well as Fellow of the Foundation for Economic Freedom. He has also provided technical assistance to government agencies in Thailand, Indonesia, Viet Nam, and various Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) bodies, while consulting for international donor agencies. Previously, he was an assistant professor at Ateneo de Manila University and University of the Philippines Los Banos. He obtained his Ph.D. from the University of the Philippines (UP) School of Economics in 2000 and did postdoctoral research at the World Fish Center in Penang, Malaysia. In 2017, he was the UP Los Banos College of Economics and Management Outstanding Alumnus for Economics and Public Policy.

Dr. Mignonne Man-jung Chan
Chair and CEO, Out-of-the-Box Consultancy

Mignonne Man-jung Chan has extensive experience in academia, government, business, and media. She is Founder and CEO of Out-of-the-Box Consultancy, and Director-General of the India Electronics and Semiconductor Association (IESA Taipei Office). She is also a commissioner at the Disciplinary Committee of the KMT. She sits in many Boards, including the National Policy Research Foundation—the KMT think tank, Independent Non-Executive Director of Standard Chartered Bank (Taiwan), Executive Board Member of Association of Emerging Market Studies, Association of Strategic Environmental Resources, and Sino-U.S. Economic and Cultural Association.

Dr. Chan currently also serves as Advisor to the Chinese Taipei APEC Study Center, Visiting Associate Professor, MBA program at the National Chengchi University. She is also regularly coaching negotiations for business, government, and academia.

Her government experience includes serving the National Security Council as Senior Advisor to the President, and Legislator-at-Large in the Legislative Yuan.

Dr. Yose Rizal Damuri
Head, Department of Economics, Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS)

Yose Rizal Damuri heads the Department of Economics of the Center for Strategic and International Studies. His research activities focus on international trade, regional integration, and globalization of value chain. He is active in several research and advisory networks both in Indonesia and in East Asia, such as Indonesia Service Dialogue (ISD) and Asia-Pacific Research and Training Network on Trade.

Dr. Damuri also teaches international economics courses at the Faculty of Economics, University of Indonesia. In addition, he occasionally writes in local and national newspapers. He received his Bachelor of Economics from the Faculty of Economics, University of Indonesia. He continued his studies at the National Centre for Development Studies, Australian National University (ANU) Canberra where he got his Master of Economics of Development. He received his PhD in International Economics from the Graduate Institute of International Studies (HEI), Geneva, Switzerland.

His research interests include international economics, economic modelling, and global value chain.

Dr. Prabir De
Professor, Research and Information System for Developing Countries (RIS), New Delhi

Prabir De is Professor at the Research and Information System for Developing Countries (RIS), New Delhi. He is also the Coordinator of ASEAN-India Centre (AIC) at RIS. Dr De works in the field of international economics and has research interests in international trade and development. He was a Visiting Fellow of the Institute of Developing Economies (IDE-JETRO) and the Asian Development Bank Institute (ADB), both in Tokyo, and a Visiting Senior Fellow of the United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (UNESCAP), Bangkok. He has been conducting policy research for the Government of India and several national and international organizations. He has a PhD in Economics from the Jadavpur University, Kolkata, India. He has contributed several research papers in international journals and written books on trade and development. His recent publication includes "Myanmar's Integration with the World: Challenges and Policy Options" (Palgrave Macmillan, Singapore, 2017). He is also the Editor of the South Asia Economic Journal published by Sage.

Assistant Secretary Ma. Hellen B. De La Vega
Office of ASEAN Affairs, Department of Foreign Affairs,
Philippines

Maria Hellen De La Vega is a career officer of the Philippine Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA). She is the Director-General for the ASEAN-Philippines National Secretariat. She was the Philippine Representative to the High-Level Task Force, the group that drafted the ASEAN Vision 2025. She also served as Philippine Consul-General in Los Angeles, California, USA; Philippine Ambassador to the Republic of the Union of Myanmar; Deputy Chief of Mission, Minister, and Consul-General at the Philippine Embassy in Beijing, People's Republic of China; First Secretary and Consult at the Philippine Embassy in Tokyo, Japan; Second Secretary and Consul at the Philippine Embassy in Madrid, Spain; and Third Secretary and Vice-Consul at the Philippine Embassy in Jakarta, Indonesia. She held the position of Executive Director of the DFA Office of Asia and Pacific Affairs from August 28, 2007 to September 23, 2008.

She graduated in 1982 at the University of Santo Tomas in Manila with a Bachelor's Degree in Asian Studies (cum laude). She was a recipient of a Fellowship Program on Investments Promotion from the Belgian Government, and took her Foreign Service Training Course under the auspices of the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade. She obtained her Master's degree in International Public Policy from the Paul Nitze School of Advanced International Studies of the John Hopkins University in Washington, D.C. as a Freeman Fellow.

Mr. Naoyuki Haraoka
Executive Managing Director, Japan Economic Foundation (JEF)

Naoyuki Haraoka was born in Tokyo in 1955. After graduating from the University of Tokyo in 1978 (Bachelor of Economics), he joined the Ministry of International Trade and Industry (MITI) of the Japanese government. Having been posted in the industrial policy section and the international trade policy section for a few years, he was enrolled in a two-year Master of Public Administration (MPA) program at the Woodrow Wilson School of Princeton University in the United States on a Japanese government sponsorship. After having acquired MPA at Princeton, he rejoined MITI in 1984 as an economist. Since then, he had been posted as Deputy Director and Director of a number of MITI divisions including the Research Division of the International Trade Policy Bureau. He was also posted in Paris twice, firstly, as Principal Economist of the Trade Bureau of the Organization of Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) from 1988 to 1992 and, secondly, as Counselor to the Japanese delegation of the OECD from 1996 to 1999. After coming back to MITI from his second stay in Paris, at the occasion of the government structural reform in 2001 when MITI was remodeled as the Ministry of Economy Trade and Industry (METI), he joined the efforts to found the METI research institute, Research Institute of Economy Trade and Industry, as its Director of Administration. He became Chief Executive Director of the Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO) San Francisco in 2003 and stayed in San Francisco until 2006. He was Director-General of the METI Training Institute from 2006 until July 2007 when he left METI permanently and joined the Japan Economic Foundation (JEF) as Executive Managing Director.

Dr. Ponciano Intal Jr.
Senior Economist, Economic Research Institute for ASEAN and East Asia (ERIA)

Ponciano Intal Jr. has been the lead coordinator (together with his ERIA colleagues) of a number of major ERIA projects on ASEAN Economic Community and ASEAN Socio-Cultural Community over the past six years, including ASEAN Rising: ASEAN and AEC beyond 2015; Framing ASEAN Socio-Cultural Community Post 2015; Mid-Term Review of the Implementation of the AEC Blueprint; and the AEC Scorecard monitoring project. Dr. Intal also led two important ERIA projects on agricultural trade and development in ASEAN. At present, Dr. Intal is the lead coordinator of the joint ERIA-Philippine government five-volume publication project, ASEAN at 50: Retrospectives and Perspectives on the Making, Substance, Significance and Future of ASEAN, in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of ASEAN in 2017.

Prior to joining ERIA in July 2009, Dr. Intal was a full-time professor at the Economics Department and University Fellow of De La Salle University, Manila (Philippines). He served the University for 10 years before retiring. He was also the President of the Philippine Institute for Development Studies for more than seven years. He also served as a top government official in the country's National Economic and Development Authority, serving as director of the Trade, Industry and Utilities Staff, and of the National Planning and Policy Staff, and then moving up ultimately as the Deputy Director-General (deputy minister position) in charge of the National Development Office of NEDA. Dr. Intal finished his Bachelor's degree in Business Administration major in Economics (summa cum laude) from Mindanao State University, Philippines, in 1970, Master of Arts in Economics from the University of the Philippines-Diliman, and PhD in Economics from Yale University (New Haven, Connecticut, USA) in 1983.

Datuk Seri Jayasiri Jayasena
Secretary General, Ministry of International Trade and Industry (MITI), Malaysia

Datuk Seri J. Jayasiri is Secretary General of the Ministry of International Trade and Industry of Malaysia. He joined the civil service in December 1981 as Assistant Secretary of International Affairs, Ministry of Primary Industries dealing with international commodity issues. He later assumed the post of First Secretary in the Permanent Mission of Malaysia in Geneva from 1988 to 1997 representing Malaysia in the Uruguay Round of negotiations to establish the World Trade Organization. He returned to MITI in 1997 and served as Principal Assistant Director of Multilateral Trade Relations and subsequently Director of APEC. He was Malaysia's Senior Official to APEC from 2002 to 2006. He went on to become Senior Director, Bilateral and Regional Relations, and then Senior Director of Multilateral Trade Policy and Negotiations. He was Deputy Secretary General (Strategy and Monitoring) of MITI from January 2015 to June 2016. He led Malaysia's team in the ASEAN-China FTA, Malaysia-Japan FTA, and the TPPA negotiations.

Mr. Kazumasa Kusaka
Chairman and CEO, Japan Economic Foundation (JEF)

Kazumasa Kusaka has been Chairman and CEO of the Japan Economic Foundation (JEF) since April 1, 2013, and is also a Professor at the University of Tokyo Graduate School of Public Policy. He previously served for 36 years in Japan's Ministry of International Trade and Industry (MITI), rising to become vice-minister for international affairs in the reorganized Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI) in 2004. During his long career in public service, Mr. Kusaka was seconded to the International Energy Agency (IEA)/OECD and was Japan's senior official for Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC). He played a central role in Asia's economic integration, promoting free trade agreements in the region as well as serving as a senior official negotiating the Doha development agenda of the World Trade Organization. He was head of Japan's Energy Agency and held director-general positions in technology and environmental policy in addition to trade and investment-related areas within METI. He was also instrumental in finalizing the Kyoto Protocol, and developing Japan's energy and environment policies. Among many other posts Mr. Kusaka has held are Special Adviser to the Prime Minister on Global Warming, senior vice president of Mitsubishi Electric, executive adviser to Dentsu Inc., and president of the Japan Cooperation Center for the Middle East.

Dr. Hank Lim
Senior Research Fellow, Singapore Institute of International Affairs (SIIA)

Hank Lim Giok-Hay has extensive experience and exposure in international and regional cooperation with a specialization in the economies of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations, Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation, and East Asian economic development. He is currently the chairperson of the Academic Advisory Council and the Research Institutes Network Meeting (RINM) of the Economic Research Institute for ASEAN and East Asia (ERIA). RIN is a network of 16 leading research institutes of ASEAN Plus China, Japan, Korea, India, Australia, and New Zealand. He is also currently Senior Research Fellow at the Singapore Institute of International Affairs (SIIA).

Previously, Dr. Lim was Director for Research of the SIIA; Director of the Centre for Advanced Studies (CAS), National University of Singapore; First Singapore Representative appointed by Government to the APEC Eminent Persons Group (EPG); First Director-General of the Pacific Economic Cooperation Council (PECC) International Secretariat in Singapore; and Academic staff at the Department of Economics, National University of Singapore.

Dr. Lim holds a Bachelor of Business Administration from Gannon College, Erie, PA, USA, and a PhD and MA in Economics from the University of Pittsburgh, PA, USA.

Dr. Gilberto Llanto
President, Philippine Institute for Development Studies
(PIDS)

Gilberto Llanto is President of the Philippine Institute for Development Studies (PIDS), Lead Convenor of the Philippine APEC Study Center Network, and Regional Coordinator of the East Asian Development Network. In addition, he is Associate Editor of the Philippine Review of Economics, and Member of the Technical Committee for Economics of the Commission on Higher Education. He was formerly Deputy Director-General of the National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA) and President of the Philippine Economic Society. Dr. Llanto obtained his PhD in Economics from the University of the Philippines School of Economics. He has written and published on public economics, growth economics, regional integration, and infrastructure regulation.

Ambassador Murray McLean AO
Chairman, Dunmore McLean Pty Ltd.

Murray McLean was a former senior officer of the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT). He currently holds many very important positions including Chair of Australia Japan Foundation (since 2012), Vice Chancellor's Professorial Fellow at Monash University (2012-2016), non-resident Fellow at the Lowy Institute (since 2014), and Chairman, Foundation of Australia Japan Studies (since 2015). He retired from DFAT in 2012 after a 42-year career during which he was Ambassador to Japan (2004-2011) initiating negotiations on the FTA and on growing security cooperation as well as leading Australia's response to the earthquake, tsunami, and nuclear disasters; Deputy Secretary of DFAT (2004); First Assistant Secretary, North Asia Division (2001-2003); High Commissioner in Singapore (1997-2001); Assistant Secretary, East Asia Branch (1992-1996), and Consul General, Shanghai.

Dr. Min Ye Paing Hein
Executive Director, Myanmar Development Institute
(MDI)

Min Ye Paing Hein is the Executive Director of Myanmar Development Institute (MDI). He is concurrently serving as a member of the Development Assistance Coordination Unit of the Government of the Union of Myanmar and of the macroeconomic management sector coordination group. Before assuming his position at the MDI, he had worked as an economist at the World Bank. Prior to his employment at the World Bank, he had taught economics and social science at the University of Wisconsin-Madison and Rutgers University. He had also served as an adjunct lecturer at the Department of Economics at the Yangon University of Economics. He had previously worked as a consultant for a number of international organizations including the USAID and the International Development Enterprises. He received his PhD from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Mr. Tadayuki Nagashima
Chief Senior Researcher, Overseas Research
Department, Japan External Trade Organization
(JETRO)

Born in Japan in 1956, he joined the Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO) after graduating from Sofia University (Jochi Daigaku) in 1979. Having been posted mainly in positions involving economic studies of Latin America, he was sent to the Embassy of Japan in Uruguay from 1989 to 1992. He was posted as Executive Director of JETRO Mexico from 2000 to 2005. During his tenure in Mexico, he was in-charge of facilitating the negotiations of the Japan-Mexico Economic Partnership Agreement. After returning to Japan in September 2005, he was posted as Director-General of several departments of JETRO Headquarters as follows: April 2008-December 2008: Director, Internal Audit Office; January 2009-March 2011: Director-General, Invest Japan Department; April 2011-March 2013: Director-General, Overseas Research Department. He was appointed as Executive Vice-President from April 2013 to July 2015. After serving as Special Assistant to the Chairman of the organization, he has been engaged as Chief Senior Researcher of JETRO since April 2016.

Dr. Ernesto Pernia
Socioeconomic Planning Secretary, NEDA
Director- General, and Chairman of the PIDS Board of Trustees

Ernesto M. Pernia is the Secretary of Socioeconomic Planning, National Economic and Development Authority, Philippines. He is also Professor Emeritus of Economics, having served as Professor and Chairman of the Department of Economics, University of the Philippines.

Dr. Pernia was Lead Economist at the Asian Development Bank (ADB). His work experience covered investment climate and productivity, economic growth and poverty reduction, education and health, human resource development, and regional economic cooperation in Asia. He also served as Regional Adviser on population and employment policy for Asia and the Pacific with the International Labour Organization.

He served as chair of the board of trustees of the University of San Carlos (2011-2014), and as a director on the board of the Philippine-American Academy of Science and Engineering (2008-2013). He is also on the boards of a number of nongovernment organizations involved in education and health concerns, population and development, and care of street children.

He obtained his PhD degree from the University of California Berkeley on a Ford Foundation scholarship and a Smithsonian Institution dissertation grant. He received the first award as Outstanding Young Scientist (economics and social sciences) from the National Academy of Science and Technology. He was chosen by the Philippine-American Academy of Science and Engineering for the 2015 Science Lectureship Award. He was a former President of the Philippine Economic Society and Co-Chair of the Federation of ASEAN Economic Associations (1988).

Dr. Pernia is the author of a number of books, articles in national and international professional journals, and chapters of books. He was an occasional contributor of public-interest commentaries to the Philippine Daily Inquirer, Business World, and The Philippine Star Science section.

Dr. Vo Tri Thanh
Economist, Central Institute for Economic Management
(CIEM)

Vo Tri Thanh is currently senior expert (former vice-president) of the Central Institute for Economic Management (CIEM). He is also Chairman of Vietnam National Committee for Pacific Economic Cooperation (VNCPEC). He holds a Bachelor of Science from the Moscow State University, and a Master's degree and a PhD in Economics from the Australian National University.

Dr. Vo Tri Thanh mainly undertakes research and provides consultation on issues related to trade liberalization and international economic integration and macroeconomic policies. His other areas of interests include institutional reforms, financial system, and economic development.

Professor Shujiro Urata
Dean and Professor of Economics, Graduate School of Asia-Pacific Studies, Waseda University

Shujiro Urata is Dean and Professor of Economics at the Graduate School of Asia-Pacific Studies, Waseda University. He is also Specially Appointed Fellow at the Japanese Centre for Economic Research (JCER), Faculty Fellow at the Research Institute of Economy, Trade and Industry (RIETI), and Senior Research Adviser for the Executive Director of the Economic Research Institute for ASEAN and East Asia (ERIA) in Jakarta. Professor Urata received his BA in Economics from Keio University in 1973 and his MA and PhD in Economics at Stanford University in 1976 and 1978. He is a former Research Associate at the Brookings Institution and an Economist at the World Bank. He specializes in International Economics and Economics of Development. He has held a number of research and advisory positions including senior advisor to the Government of Indonesia, consultant to the World Bank, OECD, the Asian Development Bank, and the Government of Japan. He published and edited a number of books on international economic issues and is an author and co-author of numerous articles in professional journals. His book publications in English include Multinationals and Economic Growth in East Asia, co-editor, Routledge, 2006, Free Trade Agreements in the Asia-Pacific, co-editor, World Scientific, 2010, Economic Consequences of Globalization: Evidence from East Asia, co-editor, Routledge, 2012, and others.

Dr. Josef Yap
Professorial Lecturer, UP School of Economics (UPSE)

Josef Yap was President of the Philippine Institute for Development Studies (PIDS), where he worked for 26 years until his retirement on June 30, 2013. While at PIDS, he specialized in macroeconomic policy and applied econometrics. Dr. Yap finished his undergraduate and doctoral studies at the University of the Philippines (UP) Diliman and went to the University of Pennsylvania on a post-graduate program. In 2010, Dr. Yap was honored as one of the 100 outstanding alumni of the UP Diliman College of Engineering as part of its centennial celebration. His current research interest centers on regional economic integration in East Asia. Dr. Yap was the regional coordinator of the East Asian Development Network and was actively involved in the establishment of the Economic Research Institute for ASEAN and East Asia (ERIA). He is co-author of the book The Philippine Economy: East Asia's Stray Cat? Structure, Finance and Adjustment and is an Editorial Adviser of the Asian Economic Journal. At present, Dr. Yap is a Professorial Lecturer at the UP School of Economics.

Professor Zhang Yunling
Academy Member, Director of International Studies,
Chinese Academy of Social Science (CASS)

Born in 1945 in China, Zhang Yunling is a Professor, Academy Member, and Director of the International Studies of Chinese Academy of Social Science (CASS), He is also Director of the Center of Regional Security of CASS, member of the National Committee of Chinese Political Consultant Conference (since 2002), and President of the China Association of Asia-Pacific Studies. He is also Vice Chairman of the China Committee of PECC, Vice-President of the China-ROK Friendship Association, and Board Member of ERIA.

He was Director of the Institute of Asia-Pacific Studies from 1993 to 2007. He served as a member of East Asia Vision Group (2000-2001, EAVG II, 2012-2013), member of Official Expert Group on China-ASEAN Cooperation (2001), member of ASEM Task Force (2003-2004), Chairman of Joint Expert Group for Feasibility Study on EAFTA (2005-2006), and member of Phase II, member of Joint Expert Group of CEPEA (2006-2009), Executive Chairman of China-Republic of Korea Joint Expert Committee (2010-2013), and member of China-Japan 21st Century Friendship Commission (2003-2008).

His latest publications include China and Asia Regionalism (English, 2010), China and World: New Change, Understanding and Identification (Chinese, 2011), Seeking a Benign Relationship between China and the World (Chinese, 2013), and Between the Ideal and Reality-Thinking of East Asian Cooperation (Chinese, 2015). (2001), member of ASEM Task Force (2003-2004), Chairman of Joint Expert Group for Feasibility Study on EAFTA (2005-2006), and member of Phase II, member of Joint Expert Group of CEPEA (2006-2009), Executive Chairman of China-Republic of Korea Joint Expert Committee (2010-2013), and member of China-Japan 21st Century Friendship Commission (2003-2008).

His latest publications include China and Asia Regionalism (English, 2010), China and World: New Change, Understanding and Identification (Chinese, 2011), Seeking a Benign Relationship between China and the World (Chinese, 2013), and Between the Ideal and Reality-Thinking of East Asian Cooperation (Chinese, 2015).