

JEF Forum 2015 Highlights

Structural reform and growth strategy against the backdrop of a slowing global economy and increasing geopolitical risks

Below is the line-up of JEF's international fora in 2015.

China-Japan-Korea Cooperation Dialogue is another challenge in achieving global peace and prosperity that JEF is covering. A succinct introduction of this dialogue in Changchun 2015 is available on page 54 of this issue.

Articles on the other issues listed here will be available soon.

1. Japan-US Forum 2015

“Uncertain Prospects and Policy Challenges for the Global Economy”

(Collaborator: Brookings Institution)

Sept. 25, 2015, Washington DC, United States

2. Japan-Europe Forum 2015

“The Political Economy of Japan and the EU: Challenges and Strategies”

(Collaborator: Chatham House)

Nov. 13, 2015, London, United Kingdom

3. Asia-Pacific Forum 2015

“ASEAN Community Building and Regional Economic Integration in East Asia: Looking Beyond 2015”

(Collaborator: ERIA [Economic Research Institute for ASEAN and East Asia])

Nov. 26, 2015, Jakarta, Indonesia